I right here, five minutes at a time I'm gone
I can't breath I'm in to deep
So take me up to the surface
Take me up to the surface
I won't dream for fear of sleep
Take me up to the surface
Take me up to the surface

Could you see beyond the leaves
When it was me who was searching
To take you up to the surface
I was lost but I was free
It took the pain to remind me

We loved you every time
We loved you every time
I right here, five minutes at a time I'm gone

I can't relate to what I say
'Cause I'm not myself
I can't relate to what I say
'Cause I'm not myself
I can't relate to what I say
'Cause I'm not myself, I'm not

I right here, five minutes at a time I'm gone
I right here, five minutes at a time I'm gone
