"Stay"

Stay for a minute
Stay for an hour
Stay for the rest of my life
â€ˆCause I canâ€™t see a world without you
Itâ€™s just not right

Stay till the morning
Stay through the weekend
Stay till the end of the year
â€ˆCause I donâ€™t want a moment without you here

If you should go
What would I do?
Iâ€™d be a lyric without a tune

Stay for a minute
Stay for an hour
Stay for the rest of my life
â€ˆCause I canâ€™t see a world without you
Itâ€™s just not right

I canâ€™t exist
Without you near Donâ€™t try to hide, Iâ€™ll make it clear

Stay through the good times
Stay through the bad times
Stay when weâ€™re down to the wire
When a love is built on forever
It will never expire

In a world that is full of deception
In a city, drunk with desire
Itâ€™s so hard to find your own peace of mind
There must be something that is real
