Fall into the cradle of chaos
And lost in a dark depth
Blast of winds from beyond the time

And mankind has become naked
Human being has conquered the deviation
And appeared in it's own temple

And imprisoned someone in it's mind
Whom one day will bow down
And the deathly legends of a sick mind
Enchanter mind of ignoble human

And mankind has become naked
Human being has conquered the deviation
And appeared in it's own temple

That will not guide you to the right path
For your path is confined to your flawed thought(s) and spoiled manner(s)
As torment of dusty sins
Hanged a dead from it's vein
At the feast of empty brain's manifestation
Rebellious servants don't dance
