"Nothingness"

As I trample honour under my claws
And I forget about time
After nothigness I leave humanity frame
You shall possess my soul
Condemn me to the most shamelss torments
I see the death of my religion

I destroy humanity outspokenly
Nothing confines me
Thoughts in my sick mind will become eternal legends.
Life and religion of nothingness at that moment will be dominated by you.

The sun of sleepless will rise by your sick mind.
Demons will possess you

As I trample honour under my claws
And I forget about time
There is no other way but DEATH
