Why!? How could you take your life?
Now I feel so empty inside.
How can I ever heal from this wound?
No I don't think it will happen too soon.

Whoa! Displaced.
No! Erased.
Why!? A bind broken.

Though most of us want to stay you chose to go away,
leaving all of our lives estranged.
I hope your soul can see me counting all the tears
I've cried.
Now I will just say goodbye.

Where is your soul?
Where have you gone?

Your path divides the light from the soul
It's not the way
A plane where living plays no role
You could've talked to us
The pangs of being are in your control
Suicide is the only mistake you can't learn from
A tremor in the twine of your web, unfolds
