Listen now the story begins
Ill tell you only cause you are my friend
I love you dearly so I want you to know
How much you mean and I want you to glow
Grow now and spread your wings
Go now and claim your things
Never plagued by shame or regret
Let it go it just aint worth it
Ooh ooh

I wrote this song for you my friend
Always so good to see you again
I donâ€™t want you to waste away
From the things that you never say
Ooh ooh
Ooh ooh

All the pain that consumes your soul
Identify and let it go
You donâ€™t need it and it holds you back
Get off the fence where youâ€™ve always sat

I have these dreams I want you to see:
Peaceful visions for all human beings.
A world based upon equality!
Cause inside I know we can be FREE

Our trials I'll waive
This grudge will degrade
The spiral will cease
And shed this disease
Be at peace
