Hi, my name is Bobby and I'm fighting
The biggest fight of my life, is kind of frightening.
I used to have a head full of hair and now I'm baldy,
Try to keep it covered, get embarrassed if they saw me.
However, I've learned to embrace it,
Life and death situation might as well face it.
It bothers me when I hear 'em complain about
The little things in life and I'm stuck and I can't go out.
I'm afraid I won't be able to pay bills instead of climbing this hill for real,
But they don't understand my pain.
Momma in tears, grandma always praying,
But I'm staying strong and I'm fighting through it mentally.
Twelve years I've been on this earth and what it meant to me
Devastating news when I was in elementary.
Never cried and I don't know why,
Some say I'm too young, but I'm still faithful for my life.

Hey, don't cry, it's a new day,
We gonna make it through the rain, rain, rain,
Be strong, be strong, be strong, be strong.
Don't cry, it's a new day,
We gonna make it through the rain, rain, rain,
Be strong, be strong, be strong.

Wish I could do all the normal things my friends do,
Close my eyes and pretend to. It's like heaven when I'm dreaming,
But when I wake up I'm just dealing with these demons,
Lord.
Chemotherapy really, really scares me. Lot of pain, but
I would not let it bury me.
I'm always tired and I barely have the energy,
But I put on a smile when my mother's near me.
So she knows that her soldier is a fighter,
Tell her that I'm happy doesn't make me a liar.
I just want her to smile, I don't wanna stress her out.
Grandma's kisses seem to always be a blessing now.

My birthday's coming and hopefully I'll be home then,
Hospital nightmare seem to have no end.
Regardless, imma keep fighting and this is not the end,
I got news for you, cancer, I'm about to win.

Hey, don't cry, it's a new day,
We gonna make it through the rain, rain, rain,
Be strong, be strong, be strong, be strong.
Don't cry, it's a new day,
We gonna make it through the rain, rain, rain,
Be strong, be strong, be strong.

And if I had any last words I would say live life
Have no regrets, try to be the best.
Wake up every day is to be blessed.
Don't swear the small and have no stress.
Do what you can before it's too late,
Spread more love and don't spread hate.
Tell your mama, your papa that you really love 'em,
Tell your brother, your sister that you really love 'em.
God and family, nobody above 'em,
Laugh a little harder, chose a little smarter,
Before you complain, nigger, always be worse,
One bad day, you feel like you've been cursed.
Don't be afraid, conquer all fear,
Life is a gift, death always near.
Never know your last, so live it like your last
Keep close by the ones that care.

Hey, don't cry, it's a new day,
We gonna make it through the rain, rain, rain,
Be strong, be strong, be strong, be strong.
Don't cry, it's a new day,
We gonna make it through the rain, rain, rain,
Be strong, be strong, be strong.
