It's going up down steps
The bass banging, breaking through the walls like

Spitting like I'm missing all my brain cells I'm flattered in 20 fictions that's wishin for 15 minutes of fame
15 minutes of fame (15 minutes of fame)
Oh I'm glad you came, came and watch me do my thing
Alumni army, we in this
I got my people to witness
They dreamin makin decisions
Yea, it's that corporate business
You play no mind on these bitches
And when I say they were bitches
I ain't reffering to women
I'm talkin 'bout bitch ass niggas
Come and fuckin my flow
I've been ready ready shit's to go Just let the bricks hit the floor because it's losing control
She came and sat next to me
My future's so promising
She know that Sean Brown who from and be all over TV

Everyone just want a piece
I be like my nigga please
Just back up, give me my space
I bring that tie socials sets 3

Everyone just want a piece
I be like my nigga please
Just back up, give me my space
I bring that tie socials sets 3

It's going up down steps
The bass banging, breaking through the walls like
It's going up down steps
The bass banging, breaking through the walls like

Breaking through the walls like (buyaka, buyaka)

Breaking through the walls like (buyaka, buyaka)
Breaking through the walls like (buyaka, buyaka)
Breaking through the walls like

Known to be a psycho and I'm spittin in this doof my nigga
Can't stop what's tryina sell, gotta let it go
Just speaking the truth my nigga
Switchin up the flow, beat on the row
Create a motherfucker and I never be a clone
Individual, caught up in the zone
Yo, can't control it I'm on it
Every BI come across it
I told my people sit back, just watch this Uh baby I got this
You see? I started with nothing
And now I'm making them luvish Shout out to all the pretty women, I'm at out there in London
You know I'm snappin and I'm rappin and I'm clappin my homies
They had my back when I was acting like I couldn't make it happen
2013, taking action
I'm slappin and you may say as we waving favors Independence, the rock that we on Independence spirit, you could feel it throughout my songs
Chilling back I'm eating chinese with my favorite Asian chick
She mixed with Mexican, she switch her language when she pissed
Be this fuckin ridiculous, it don't gotta make sense, bitch

It's going up down steps
The bass banging, breaking through the walls like
It's going up down steps
The bass banging, breaking through the walls like

Breaking through the walls like (buyaka, buyaka)
Breaking through the walls like (buyaka, buyaka)
Breaking through the walls like (buyaka, buyaka)
Breaking through the walls like
