You're my muse
I see inspiration as it's pouring out of you
And this moment envelopes me
If there is something to believe, believe i wouldn't change a thing
This is where we both belong, and i knew it all along
But if we both stand strong
We can reach each other's arms
Reach each other's arms

(Chorus)
Because i know that you're a mystery
And I'm searching for a clue
And I know that I will never stop until I have solved you
Yet all the evidence can prove
Is all I need is you in my arms
I need you in my arms

Cause I stumble down a road of false intentions Until I heard your perfection, as it called me towards introspection

You give me a reason to live
So I am hear and here to stay

change a thing
This is where we both belong and I knew it all along
But if we both stand strong
We can reach each other's arms

(chorus)
Because i know that you're a mystery
And I'm searching for a clue
And I know that I will never stop until I have solved you
Yet all the evidence can prove
Is all I need is you in my arms
I need you in my arms

So I'm here to stay, stay
Because without you, who moves me
I could never change

So I am here
