I don't see me when I look in the mirror
It's someone else staring back at me
I'm a ghost in a walking corpse
Who is haunted by who I can't be

This is all because of the Harry's code
It's all I need to know
Your screams, are like music to my heartless being

Because I'm making up my mind
For the lost time that I paid for
(So close so far away)
You know my method isn't kind
But still I'll find what I came for
(What are you waiting for?)
Take out the enemy, get back my sanity
Brick wall defense, suspense is killing me
'Cause everything I love is what I kill for
(Look who's laughing now, so look who's laughing now)

I am your fate, I'm your destruction
I'll break the teeth right out of your mouth
I can't control this, but no one knows it
So this is how I let it all out
Brace yourself
Brace yourself

Because I'm making up my mind
For the lost time that I paid for
(So close so far away)
You know my method isn't kind
But still I'll find what I came for
(What are you waiting for?)
Take out the enemy, get back my sanity
Brick wall defense, suspense is killing me
'Cause everything I love is what I kill for
(Look who's laughing now, so look who's laughing now)

This is your final hour, look what you've done
Tied up in plastic, and there's nowhere to run
