You're not my dream girl.
You're not my reality girl.
You're my dreams come true girl.

All the troubles in my past.
That's just what they are.
And all the delusions that took host then past.
They've only made my immunity strong.

You're not my dream girl
You're not my reality girl.
You're my dreams come true girl.

I didn't blast your eyes up to moons.
I hope this for you to not be ending very soon.

Just crying in orbit with these mirrors of perfection.
To die in the arms of your affection.

What land is this?
May I never wake.
What land is this?
May I never wake.

(You're not my dream girl.
You're not my reality girl.
You're my dreams come true girl.)

All the troubles in my past.
That's just what they are.
And all the delusions that took host then past,
Have only made my immunity strong.
I'm not your dream girl.

(No no no no no no no your dream.)
(Take me dancing tonight.)
(Take me out, it's Saturday!)
