as the sun decays
images of the dead girl in the backseat with sullied panties of milk and blood silently a tear rolls down her bruised cheek tasting battered skin maybe i just want the world to die pierce the skin with fingertips penetration into the world of sin within as sunshine melts into the sky hell absorbed through the angel's cries dead girl makes a tender lust for cunt her silence is violence
tasting battered skin
