cookies and cream was just a dream I thought she was all mine but now that i look back on what happened it was just a waste of time she was a girl with dark blonde hair i cared for her but she, she didn't care for me!

you don't have homework and i don't either i'll come to visit you we'll eat some jello on your front porch fuckin' hug me when we're through you can say stuff about me behind my back and i won't give a damn and if you were dumb i would be dumber you know that's what i am she doesn't care, she cut her hair she changed so much i don't think i know her anymore!

she's not one to fall for you went to the Caboto dance instead of going to our show but we don't care we don't care anymore we just let you go i have heard of a remedy that can cure your heartless mind

so i hope when you hear this song you think of what you left behind

but like she's ever gonna hear this song like she's ever gonna buy our record at all!
