Don't let me down by the waters edge
I see you now with your fingers wet
Holding a gun pointed at my head
Oh and man you've changed a bit

Lost a friend tonight but gained a lover
Play a song tonight she asked for another
as her eyes became wide I noticed a smile on her face
Can't keep time I'm lost in her place tonight

Crawl from the swamp to the raft ashore
Forget all the same as it was before
Your leaking out your gasoline
Traveling on the golden breeze

Lost a friend tonight but gained a lover
Play a song tonight she asked for another
as her eyes became wide I noticed a smile on her face
Can't keep time I'm lost in her place tonight

Feed on the red carpet holding you
All the weight is in your room
Spent the night away from home
Call me back when you're alone

Lost a friend tonight but gained a lover
Play a song tonight she asked for another
as her eyes became wide I noticed a smile on her face
Can't keep time I'm lost in her place tonight
