Pack my bags tonight
Leave in the early light
Catch the last westbound
So long my hometown

And now I see the tide
It's calling me and it's calling you

Guided by these yellow lines
Breathe the ocean air
Show up without care
I left it all behind

And now I see the tide
It's calling me and it's calling you

Run away gotta catch a wave x 6

And now I see the tide
It's calling me and it's calling you
And all my other options are watching me
Calling you
