I hope you brought your warmth cuz I have Everything needed for this love
Broke the ice with eyesight
Touching underneath city lights

Our shaking fingertips
And fear of the evening
Have got us believing
We could stay up all night
Watching the sunrise
Chasing the night sky

The songs I wrote when I was young are true
But I forget all of those things with you
The earth may turn but we won't move
My heart is still when I'm with you
The sun gets captured in the moon tonight

Our shaking voices
And fear of the evening
Made us believe in
That we will stay up all night
Fighting the sunrise
Racing the night sky

Our shaking voices
And fear of the evening
Have got us believing
We could stay up all night
Chasing the night sky
Our shaking fingertips
And fear of the evening
Got us believing
We will stay up all night
Fighting the sunrise
Racing the night sky
