"Until You're Complete"

ooooooooooo
ooooooooooo x2

Staring at the stars and your holding your breath
Until you collapse into your bed
Holding the time so you never forget
The reason you came Is so you could be here

ooooooooooo
ooooooooooo x2

You left all your troubles inside your mind
Now you're praying for wine just to calm you down
All you really need is a place to escape
Just jump in the car
So you can be here

Now your life is everything you need
And nothing's gonna change until your complete Until your complete
