Lyrics:

Verse 1:

Oh what my eyes see
You'll never believe me
Oh what a wonderful world
You would be in
Oh what a sky of blue
I never wanna wake up, wake up
Oh what a feeling to fly
Over the rainbow
Up, up, up, up, up

Chorus:

People, come on
Let's save the world
For that next generations
See the beauties of
Everlasting seasons

Verse 2:

Oh what a smile I see
On everyones face
Oh no wars and crime
Or discriminating race
Oh mother nature planet earth
Is our home
Oh people let's unite
There is still hope
Sitting in the shades of trees
Of trees with yellow leafs
Living in the past without present
With future memories
Yellow leafs that
Once where green
Just like first love
Is also green
Like the explosion of nature
In spring

All what I said
All what I said
It's just a dream...

Chorus:

People, come on
Let's save the world
For that next generations
See the beauties of
Everlasting seasons
