

Shores "Westward March"

Visit "Westward March" on MotoLyrics.com

Daylight shines into our homes
We emerge from the dark of the mountains
You and I will go together as one.

With our pasts on our back
We take this westward march to bury it all in its watery grave.

Forget it all in the abyss
As one we look towards the future.

We say in awe "it's so blinding"
Though we can't see the steps in front our feet
We know we're heading to greatness on this westward march.

Daylight shines on to our homes
We emerge from the dark of the mountains
You and I will go together as one.

Hand in hand
Over every obstacle
Never letting go
Over every obstacle
Never letting go
