I got nothing in my heart
That you can't have
I got nothing in my heart
That you can't have
Cause it's rainin' I'm cold and lonely
And I'd swim to the bottom of the sea
To find you there just waiting to hold me
Who'd a known that the jokes on me

Oh there's nothing in my heart
That you can't have
Oh there's nothing in my heart
That you can't have
This tiny vessel does nothing to protect me
It barely beats and I barely breath
Still find a way to make it to your doorstep
You look through me like a broke tv

There's nothing in my heart
You can't have
Oh there's nothing in my heart you can't have
He took it all while I was walking backwards
And wouldn't you know it was impossible to see
He swung his arm round
And tore my heart out
And light flickered like a broke tv
But it's okay cause he carved a space
For you and me to swim so low
The good thing is you can leave me down there
My heart don't beat
So you'll never know
You'll never know
