You begin to crawl,
Before there was a before-
There has to be now..(where'd you go?)
oh- I'm slowly changing, and re-arranging (where'd you go, where'd you go?[x2])
My life's just started, that's when we parted- yeah.
(where'd you go, where'd you go?) where did you go?
(where'd you go...)

Do you ever wonder why- you need someone to call,
when you're lying on that cold floor- losing it all?!
Could you ever just agree- to how you treated me?!
I'm worth more than that cold-throw you wanted me to be.

And with it all...
You begin to crawl.
