If we don't talk
That's okay
Cause I hear everything
That you say
You got my heart to mend to you
A hole that hurts inside
It shows
And you can't hide
But if we open up
We'll break through

You and I go deeper
Down below where no one sees it
When you close your eyes
And just believe it
You and I go deeper
Where everything's unspoken
And the world seems so wide open
To me now

You got broken once before
Closed your heart up
And said no more
We were trying not to fall
Afraid of letting go
Wait until we know now

You and I go deeper
Down below where no one sees it
When you close your eyes
And just believe it

You and I go deeper
Where everything's unspoken
And the world seems so wide open
To me now

And the morning shines much brighter to me
Somehow, maybe this can last forever
If we follow what we feel
And you love me like I know you will

You and I go deeper
Down below where no one sees it
When you close your eyes
And just believe it
You and I go deeper
Where everything's unspoken
And the world seems so wide open
To me

You and I go deeper
Down below where no one sees it
When you close your eyes
And just believe it
You and I go deeper
Where everything's unspoken
To me now
