Champagne
I'm breaking every single chain
Insane
I'm watching all my colors change

I wait for your call
I can feel it in my bra
You're burning down my walls
Not scared to lose it all
When I kiss your lips,
We're touching fingertips
My stomach starts to flip
I'm ignited, this is it

You give me fire, give me fire
Coming out its coming out
You give me fire, give me fire
Coming out its coming out

Too late,
to even try to walk away
For goodness sake,
I walk the line won't hesitate

And I hope I'm caught
My panties in a knot
Yeah I'm into what you've got
I can't fight it, it's too hot
When it gets too much
I'm melting in your touch
I'll be welcoming the rush
Can't deny it this is love

You give me fire, give me fire
Coming out, it's coming out
You give me fire, give me fire
Coming out, it's coming out

(Its just like johnny and june, they wrote their name on the moon)
Maybe I fell too soon

(they might have fallen too soon, but yet they still found the room)
But have you met you (Its just like johnny and june, they wrote their name on
the moon)
Oh, what I wouldn't do
(they might have fallen too soon, but yet they still
Just like Johnny and Jude (Its just like johnny and june, they wrote their name on
the moon)
They wrote on the moon
(they might have fallen too soon, but yet they still
found the room)
They might have fallen too soon (Its just like johnny and june, they wrote their name on
the moon)
But they found the room
(they might have fallen too soon, but yet they still
found the room)

Give me fire, give me fire
Coming out, it's coming out
Give me fire, give me fire
