Getting on the guilt train
Following the leaves on the guilt train
Blowing like a breeze on the guilt train
Getting on the guilt train
Never lets me down on the guilt train
Keeping me around on the guilt train

So come and meet me where the nights are day
Open wounds where the pain still stays
Come and meet me at the back of the train
You're not a winner but we're both the same

We can blow away the steam of fear
We'll remember why we're even here
Come and meet me where the dust turns gray
We're both a sinner but we stay that away

It's been a long time moving
I haven't hit the ground, I've been losing
Losing what I found on the guilt train
Getting on the guilt train
Counting every track on the guilt train
Never turn your back on the guilt train

Come and meet me where the nights are day
Open wounds where the pain still stays
Come and meet me at the back of the train
You're not a winner but we're both the same

Try and wrestle all your demons out
Spill the truth hiding in our mouths
Come and meet me where the dust turns gray
We're both a sinner but we stay that way

So many letters that I didn't write
My regrets reach a mile high
Several stories was my appetite
It's time to jump away
You can't even move your legs to swim
You can't believe you're in the mess you're in Never thought it would go this way

But here I am, another guilty day

So come and meet me where the nights are day
Open wounds where the pain still stays
Come and meet me at the back of the train
You're not a winner but we're both the same

Try and wrestle all your demons out
Spill the truth hiding in our mouths
Come and meet me where the dust turns gray
We're both a sinner but we stay that way
