Where's my will,
Can I find a way,
The earth is wild,
And I can't sit still,

A familiar sound,
A familiar voice,
Makes it so hard,
To make a choice,
I don't know if I should stay,

A thousand stars,
You will have my word,
I'm bright enough,
To fill these cracks,

A familiar place,
A familiar voice,
Makes it so hard.

To make a choice,
I don't know if I should stay,

I ran to you like water
I threw my body in
And I'll stand up on the ocean
Just to show you that I am strong, strong
But what if I am wrong

A familiar look
A familiar smile
Makes it so hard
To make a choice
I don't know if I should stay away
