Is anybody listening?
Can anyone see through this fog?
Feeling like you're in the race
But you never even started at all
Staring at my empty face
Looks better in the dark of the night
Feeling like I've been erased
If I fix it will I be alright?

I'm left in doubt
I'm losing out, yeah

Where is the sky
Oh, how do we know what's wrong from right
Where should I go
'Cause people always tell me that I love too slow
It's something that we all don't know

Losing hours every night
Building you piece by piece
You've walked me through my broken dreams
With the pain kicking back at my feet

Never speaking out of line
Believing only what I see
Where have all the flowers gone
I never picked one for me

I wanna know, where we go, yeah

Where is the sky
How do we know what's wrong from right
Where should I go
'Cause people always tell me that I love too slow
It's something that we all don't know

All that, don't let it all show through
Don't laugh, everything is up to you
You're changing tides, with only your peace of mind
Give it up, give it up
And you'll never get your wings to fly

Where is the sky
How do we know what's wrong from right
Where's there to go
'Cause people always tell me that I love too slow
It's something that we all don't know

How do we know, how do we know

la da da, la da da da
