i sit in the corner of my place and start to luminance windows open and burn the frame sometimes i wanna stay a way from my mates and this girl who only care about dates have time to my self sometimes but i will be my self all the time to cause a battle i don't see need because in i have a wife and a kind to feed and i my self feel like am in dare need and i can't wait to have my own a sign of relief cause i will always be that person of belief despite of many stare at me with disbelief that's quit kind of some mischief and i can't wait to have my sign of relief thanks to all those who want me to break through although i know i can without your wish chorus
am a person of responsibility,responsibility and don't you try to estimate my ability for i have no regrets y
verse
i burn a candle and watch at it burn and a scandal celebrate when i get it squashed there is no need of saying you have fun if all you do is interfere with others life we are growing old and in fashion you older but out of fashion before you say its a beef fast understand the version and by then i can say am through with my mission you don't want to understand but you want to be understood but you act will lead you to be misunderstood where am sited you once stood and when we tell you the truth all you do is tend to change your mood and you acts turn to be good and every body can get the capture of the truth without prove chorus
regrets y
