Once again found myself
In an unfamiliar place
And I am losing it
As I'm staring at your face,
And now I'm hopeless.

Wondering why I do mind,
It's tearing me apart,
And I'm stuck with not caring.
I'm not doing so well.
You were no friend of mine.
Please listen, I forget,
And I'm stuck with being lonely.
It's no one's fault but mine.

And I could hope I'll get my way,
But shit won't ever change,
So this is all in vain.
I'm wishing for a day
That'll never be.

Wondering why I do mind,
It's tearing me apart,
And I'm stuck with not caring.
I'm not doing so well.
You were no friend of mine.
Please listen, I forget,
And I'm stuck with being lonely.
It's no one's fault but mine.

Wondering why I do mind,
It's tearing me apart,
And I'm stuck with not caring.
I'm not doing so well.
You were no friend of mine.
Please listen, I forget,
And I'm stuck with being lonely.
It's no one's fault but mine.
