Ba, baba, baba, ooooh
Ba, baba, baba, Oh yeah
Ba, baba, baba, ooooh
Ba, baba, baba, Oh yeah

Well the pretty ring that I gave to you
Don't seem to mean a thing girl
You're just as nice, but I'm cold as Ice
As I sit here all alone (well alright now)
Called my frineds and they called theirs
But they say they haven't seen you
So I hold your picture to my chest
And wait for you to phone ('cause I need you)

Baby, you've been flirtin' (yeah)
Quit that sneaking around (well alright now)
That's no way to treat me (no!)
Gotta put a stop to this right now

Well at 12 o'clock it was just no use
So I had to go searching
When ! had to try to find you
I didn't know who to call (oh no!)
Waling down this cold dark street
I can hear my momma say (she says)
Son don't sit home for that girl
While she's out having a ball (Mom is right!)

Baby, you've been flirtin' (yeah)
Quit that sneaking around (well alright now)
That's no way to treat me (no!)
Gotta put a stop to this right now

But I don't want to fight
but then I just might
Hey stop, Look at you
If you want to unite
you've got to give all your love to me (do yu hear me?)
Stop, look at you
Don't you know little girl
that your heart belongs to me

Baby, you've been flirtin' (yeah)
Quit that sneaking around (well alright now)
That's no way to treat me (no!)
Gotta put a stop to this right now

Stop, girl look at me
You've been flirtin' (yeah)
Girl, look at you (mom is right!)
Stop, girl look at me
You've been flirtin' (yeah)
Girl, look at you (mom is right!)
Stop !
