so many swear to something they just saw,
I don't want to go back there alone, I'm only silent cause i' ve got nothing to say, it's alright, it's alright, would you take it if you had it again, well there's some pull and some drag in the wind, I'm lost somewhere that's too easy to find, but it's not mine, it's not mine, just wait for it, I'll be coming with,

cause I want it too,
it's not pitiful, or a swim against,
a second wind, I hope so,

I lost it all before I learned how to fight, I felt it all but maybe just for the night, and maybe one day it will take you away, but we're alright, we're alright,

just wait for it, I'll be coming with,
cause I want it too,
it's not pitiful, or a swim against,
a second wind, I hope so,
