Show 'em now

[Intro]

Yeh

They say I'm caught up in the hype
I need to slow it down (aha)
I need to slow it down
I need to slow it down
down, down

They say I'm caught up in the hype
They saying shit that I don't like,
they need to tone it down
They say I'm sick up on the mic,
and if I'm gonna show it,
I'm gonna show it now

[Chorus]

They say I'm caught up in the hype,
I need to slow it down
They saying shit that I don't like,
they need to tone it down
They say I'm sick up on the mic,
I need to throw it down,
cos if I'm gonna show it,
I'm gonna show it now

I need to throw it down
I need to throw it down
people say I'm sick up on the mic,

I need to throw it down
I need to show em now,
how we throw it down
cos if gonna show em
I'm gonna show em now

[Verse 1]

18 carat rhymes I find holding the pen,

the way I spit makes me rich like there's gold in my flem,
your old rhymes, deserve to be tossed in a bin, don't get me crossed mines explode with the loss of a limb

Scribes with the midus touch fuck the finest sluts,
I tokes blunts when my eyes is shut and my account ain't in the minus much so spineless cunts
are trying to touch
us mindless thugs
that rhyme on drugs

and yeh feds wanna ban me rap
but getting snapped happy-slapped we come strapped to get your family clapped we kick our habit at this habitat and carry that your so wack in fact,
you'll be lucky to come out handicapped

Seen in court sitting, its the rapper / mortician while I envision, the mechanism of the system.
My lethal incision leave you in a fetal position arrested on suspicion, of flipping rhythm with the composition

[Chorus]

They say I'm caught up in the hype,
I need to throw it down,
cos if I'm gonna show it,

I need to throw it down
people say I'm sick up on the mic,

I need to throw it down
I need to show em now,
