Please don't tell me why when I opened the back door I found you with another one you told me that is not no it's not like it seems but I'm betrayed the forsaken by all the things I made could this be the end or it's just the begin?

You show me that life could be much better without you You're foolish if you believe that I'll come back to you now it's time to get away from all this pain

So tell me how it's like to feel the taste of your regrets. will you be obsessed by your consciousness?
You should burn the night away and find a way to walk over me everything you're used to saying it's just a lie to feel good again

... what I had before it's like swimming through the flames to reach the other shore

So take this chance and make a sense to everything you do you better learn you better walk and realize that it's true
