One step inside this room.
the world outside's in bloom I want to take the distance no! I won't feel the fear of being a man Now everyone is asking me to be the one that I won't be To be a sinner or a fake so reach the fame or be a slave

But I don't know if where I go it's the same road that I've begun at least I'll be the one who walked alone

Can I cure this disease can I have just what I need can I explain myself can I prove to everyone that I am here to resist that I can barely breath that there's a hole inside my head so baby catch me if you can
I'll disappear

Hey now don't make a sound they'll never find me out if I don't say to everyone
that I am here to resist
that I can barely breath
I'll disappear
