Days are passing
And still I'm in pain
My heart is aching
This is so insane
And now you're gone
And I'm still lost
These broken pieces won't stay in one part

[Chorus:]
But who
Are you to go?
And change everything?
How will I know?
That you'll feel the same?
Now I faintly
See the real side of you
Sadly, that's the you I thought I knew!

Do you really think I wanted this?
Yeah, huh
We were friends until
You gave up
You changed my mind
And I thought you were true
I fell in love
And I thought that you did too

[Chorus:]
But who
Are you to go?
And change everything?
How will I know?
That you'll feel the same?
Now I faintly
See the real side of you
Sadly, that's the you I thought I knew!
