Whyâ€™d you have to fall
So hard for her lies Whatâ€™s so special
Canâ€™t see it in my eyes
Has she known you for all these years

(Chorus)

Has she had your back, and wiped your tears
Has she given you all the love I had-
Has she told you her life from word to word
Has she told you all the lies sheâ€™s told,
and the small things that hurt her
And tell you what her lifeâ€™s about

Is it so hard for you
To see the things I do
Is it so hard to hide that you donâ€™t feel the same way
Is it hard, to ignore me in every single way
Is it easy to forget about me,
I mean come on, I introduced you to her.

Now im lost
(found myself and its lost again)
And now starstruck
(found myself now iâ€™m lost again)
You wouldnâ€™t had fallen if youâ€™d hear her with colons
just please see me

(Chorus)

Has she had your back, and wiped your tears
Has she given you all the love I had-
Has she told you her life from word to word
Has she told you all the lies sheâ€™s told,
and the small things that hurt her
And tell you what her lifeâ€™s about
