Hold on to your dream

Intro

Hold on to your dreams. Hold on to your dreams Luck will shine on you one day. Hold on.

Verse 1

I'm Just a young black male money making is my mission just a young homie trying to make a living. In this world we are only the strong survive the weak die you've got to be the best to be at the top this is my advice to you work hard life is no bed of roses make good use of your opportunities, Opportunities they say only come but once don't get chance it could be your only chance put yourself together in order like a commander in control of a trigger it doesn't matter if your passing through hell anything worth doing is worth doing well your like this today doesn't mean it will be like this forever but however, Keep your head up stick your chest out you don't have to kill your dreams hold on to your dreams.

Chorus

Hold on to your dreams. Hold on to your dreams Luck will shine on you one day. Hold on.

Verse 2

Stop thinking about the stress because it doesn't help always be optimistic don't be sceptic even when things get hectic life is what you make out of it so stop it if you want to kill your brother to make a profit you're not a failure if you fail but you be if you accept being a failure you can get it if you really want the best preparation for tomorrow is to do today's work so pop well and I tell success is not to be mentioned not so much by the position that one has reached the light but by the optical one has overcome while trying to succeed and proceed the reason some people don't recognise opportunities is because it often comes described as hard work just work a little bit harder.

Chorus

Hold on to your dreams. (Hold on to your dreams) Hold on to your dreams (Hold on to your dreams) Luck will shine on you one day.
Hold on.
