You waste potential
You're not so special
Can you take the pressure
Well I don't think so

This is why I hardly try
You're drowning me in your apathy

Take it back take it back
This falling out of ours
is making me question all of this tension
Just eat your words
You better take it take it back

Let's go
It's such a vicious cycle I'm going psycho
This is where I draw the line
This is where we decide

This is why I hardly try
You're drowning me in your apathy

Take it back take it back
This falling out of ours
is making me question all of this tension
Just eat your words
You better take it take it back

I'm calling out our ways
We're falling down all the way

Tonights the night we fall
Southerland Nights
