Supa dupa high I'm the lord of the flies
The bridge that holds the spec in front of my eyes
These words are mine you can try not pay it no mind
But if you paying forward protect with your life
I'm breaking the barriers not here to be wasting time
I'm setting the trends it's long for waiting in line
Still got my half cup, I been fed up
But now I feed my truths, nourish the young cubs
And I stay tuned like Korg progressing to a major chord Depression was the main course stress was the starter
I used to be so angry and hurt with my father
But when my granny died I cried for him and cried for me
And when I hugged him he felt human not like a monster
So when I think of him I'm calmer and much maturer
And when I see my brothers and sisters I feel like we're soldiers
We're on the same team we fight the same wars
We got the same scars, gotta climb the same walls
The mirror image of me I know my people love me I feel a tap on my shoulder sometime I know it's Frenchie
I know these writers and these bloggers wanna hate
me
Cause I said that I would win, they called me arrogant
But missed the fact that I laid out my own destiny
So matter what I do in my future can't take away from me
I'm still learning, I'm still trying,
I got my angel wings and I ain't afraid of flying

I ain't afraid of flying
I ain't afraid of flying
I ain't afraid if falling

I keep having recurring dreams, it's the same theme Always a different cast it's just a different scene
I'm in an elevator, I keep going up but going too fast
Or in a car with some obstacles I can't get past
I don't need no doctor to tell me the reason for it

The answers are always stitched in like the seams on it And so we dream of it, so I guess we're living our dreams
So I guess that means our dreams are our reality
But bloggers keep pushing my buttons for controversy
Acting like I'm not human like I ain't got feelings
But where I come from we react we don't run
So anyone who thinks I take that is so wrong
Now my battles ain't with myself they with everyone else
We are soldiers these wars never cease
It's just now I got fresh kicks in feet
And I got money in the bank
God knows I deserve it
I put my heart into this and shared it with the public Never told you no lies, never acted like I was perfect
I will not live like a hermit
And we ain't afraid of journalists
We are og's, we ain't afraid of no police
I used to put in work pumping Tupac Makaveli
Now I fine dine 5 course and I fill my belly
I sip on Sancerre and look at what I done already I'm so proud, I'll climb any mountain and shout And I'll never throw in the towel, I'll never throw in the towel, yo
I'm still learning, I'm still trying and I ain't afraid of flying
