There's work to be done, daydreams mean I sleep less easy

Restfulness makes eyes more dreary

The voice on my shoulder says sleep when you're dead, get out the bed

2am, Mac Pro typing again freestlying again

Until I get flow that swoops like strings

And the chord change moves me and soothes me

This ain't for the soulless only the soulful souls can really feel this

The cloth that I'm cut with, those I that I grow wid steam fish eat wid it

I see visions in the ceiling, lying on my back on my bed I'm reeling in my sanity

Cause I break down the barriers they put on me

More and more when it comes to achievement so many more yes I can feel it

Sometime I hate this, these creative rapist test my patience

Talk beyond they stations and they say that it's the truth

But all know I can't see no proof

So now my life is yours I'm becoming a caricature

Cause the aim is to get it like pop but the company you keep is important

So I prefer to be in the company of somethin' much realer

I used to roll with the shottas and the peelers so what I look like hitch up with them

I read books on the secrets, I study the world

I know what they putting in the water

Telling the truth gets harder the higher I climb

The closer to the top the more they lie

I'm too sensitive ey

What am I running from, where am I running too

I can't see, it's too bright

The message is getting through, I'm hearing it calling me

I been waiting up all night

I see it in my visions, I got it in my sights

The more I chase the more I come alive
I'm a sun dog, I'm a sun dog, I'm a sun dog, I'm a sun
dog

Every goal reached is another one set I never take check there's seeds to sow yet I won't live down to expectations set we carry torch a bun a fire pon dem I live for cause not because it's in passion rules style I bring With paper and pen I'll pull 'em in, but no parliament can change this percent It puts me in a pensive mood when I purposely choose to pursue my own rules.
I'm a problem it's probably true but what should I do red pill or blue pill How can I live if I don't do what I feel,
It all fall through if the foundation ain't real That's one on the 80's they was on the kill bill, riots It's still like that in Myatt's Field, tired Our desires won't lie dormant forever but they think they're so clever
'Cause all we do is watch the box, watching the box watching us
Rewired to ignore injustices that happen to just just-us
They marvel in marvelousness of their greediness
We tired of this so if it's on us then we be ready to buss I'm locked and aimed and it's all the same if you rocking wid us
Cause if we ain't free then it's war mind state rapers Them imaginary bars can't hold my heart there's no replace off, hey

What am I running from, where am I running too
I can't see, it's too bright
The message is getting through, I'm hearing it calling
me
I been waiting up all night
I see it in my visions, I got it in my sights
The more I chase the more I come alive
I'm a sun dog, I'm a sun dog, I'm a sun dog, I'm a sun
dog
