Lets Go!

I can feel this fear inside that no one els can sense

Taking little steps as the war inside repents

I am not a hero, just a monster can't you see?

Unleash another being, another warrior in me

I watched it all crash to the ground

It's time to turn this place around

My mind keeps creeping up on me

All day and night!

Tell me am I scary or just pointing out all my frauds

The only way to stop it is to bury all my flaws

I am not a hero, just a monster can't you see?

Unleash another being, another warrior in me

I watched it all crash to the ground

(If only we just made more sense)

It's time to turn this place around

(And now the madness will commence)

My mind keeps creeping up on me

All day and night!

[Guitar Solo]

I watched it all crash to the ground

(If only we just made more sense)

It's time to turn this place around

(And now the madness will commence)

I watched it all crash to the ground!

(It tries to take over my life)

My mind keeps creeping up on me

All day and night!
