(Intro)

Yea

This is going out

To all the all the middle aged moms out there

Wuttup baby?

(Chorus)

Moms like my music, they play it all day

Can you be my soccer mom? I'm in the van on my way
to the game

Throw your hands up if you got an apron on

If you just made brownies then save me some

'Cause moms like my music

My music, my music

(Verse)

So throw your spatula up in the air, take out your good silver wear

Baby, it's a special occasion

Put your SRH on, pack your kids up in the van

Take em to daycare, you're gonna stay in

When you get home this is what you gonna do

Tell your hubby that you're chilling with your crew (with your crew)

Just book a motel, bring your apron and some pancakes

I be slap the dads til the motherfuckin pan breaks

I see them in the Audi and your mommy's got a body

Kid bring it to the show, I'll give you a free copy

Shit, you could have can have a free shirt if you bring your auntie

I had them sisters jumpin out them panties tryina grab me

I got it badly for a MILF with some Jamaican patties

I make er only fatty, she even ice my kakies

Mr. NoBigDeal with a 40 year old on the road driving a caravan after the show

(Chorus)

Moms like my music, they play it all day

Can you be my soccer mom? I'm in the van on my way

to the game
Throw your hands up if you got an apron on
If you just made brownies then save me some
'Cause moms like my music
My music, my music

(Verse)

It's meet the teacher night, I ain't even got a kid
Graduated a year ago but I swear I forgot some shit
Let my rocka grab the vodka, I forgot but I look forward to the right side
I see your sexy mama, I'm like "Hey! How you doin'?"
SRH, nice to meet you
What's your name? - Mona Lisa
That fits perfect with your features
I'm just heading out, catch a motion picture at the vida
Like you to come with me if your husband doesn't see ya"
She tells that she got divorced about a year ago
Ever since the break-up she's been waiting on a miracle
She told me I would love to spend the night but really though
Instead of a movie why don't we make our own video?
What an opportunity, oh you mean you and me
Of course I'd like to make a DVD and sell it to the streets
I mean what kind of person would I be to say we couldn't be?
I pick up the camera, now look at it like you look at me

(Chorus)

Moms like my music, they play it all day
Can you be my soccer mom? I'm in the van on my way
to the game
Throw your hands up if you got an apron on
If you just made brownies then save me some
'Cause moms like my music
My music, my music
