(Intro)

Yea

It's S baby

Ha ha

Yea, it's no big deal tho

I stay scheming man

Ha ha ha

Yeah

Let's go

(Verse)

I'm talking shit you never heard, a little youngin talk

From how I'm speakin I'm sure it seems that I done it all

See when I'm weedin my demons to run it all

And now I'm weezing out, think I'm having funny tho

And now I'm weighing out the consequences

I'm making a conscious effort

I wish I was blind to these dirty bitches, no contraceptive

I know my girl got my back and I couldn't be condescended

Advise you to drop your weapon, try talkin a record

And if I'm rich forever, why am I broke now?

Why am I broke down? Still in my old town

I got mixt feelings, I'm still in this bitch killin

With a flick of the wrist, spilling my inner inhibitions

I'm still wishing to hit lottery

I'm tryina pay the bills with my voice, uh

They sayin talk is cheap

Well I said a lot of shit tho

So if I have my pennies in the jar then I've hit goldâ€¦ right?

So get your ego out my premises

Cuz I ain't tryina be your nemesis

Find you, no severance

I'm like a motherfuckin hero

The De Niro of the suburbs, spittin shit in your ear lobe

Chyeah, had enough of all the speculation

Is he fakin? Will he make it? Am I hatin?

Yeah, recognize when you get jealous

I'mma tell it how I tell it

I'm just tryina be compelling with my art work
This is how my heart works Music, music and music + music, music and some hard work
Yeah, I'm tryina fuck up the world
And in the air I'll be something you heart

(Chorus)
I stay dreamin
I just want it all
I just want it all yea
I stay dreamin
Cuz I just want it all
I just want it all yea
