I can not stop watchin' your face I'd like to leave but I'm under your spell strangers in the night tryin' to get it right headin' for some time together I can't be sure what's on your mind something in your eyes tells me I'm right kiss me in the moonlight let me feel your breath I'll do my best make this moment forever to last make me stay for this night but don't make me love you catch my dreams and hold 'em tight don't let me go secrets of the past now or never come true let me fly to heaven with you we might be the last of the romantics but we won't become victims of love is it foolish pride we're feelin' deep inside we don't care now's the time for a mystery to dare

secrets of the past now or never come true
