Visit "Heart" on MotoLyrics.com

There's something you should know
I'm gonna go out on my own
I need to relax and get rid of my phone
There's something I'm feeling
It's not quite that high or that low
I'm stuck in the sky
And I can't let go

I ripped a hole through your heart
Sucked all the love through the scar
now we are binary stars

I'm getting excited
Over my feeling of dread
Don't know if this world is a lie in my head
I move like a raindrop
Caught in a vacuum of air
I'm silent and calm confused and aware

I ripped a hole through your heart
Sucked all the love through the scar
now we are binary stars
