So they brought me here to show how to live
I'm guessing they never thought it out
I could pace the room for the seventh time
And hope to feel alive again

If I follow it, follow it in too far
(In a way, it's a shame, but...)
If I follow it, follow it in too far

But there's another chapter waiting there
Hesitate.
But there's another chapter waiting there
Listen in.
Try to feel it out, fooling myself,
But another chapter waiting there
Still a little further on

Try the pieces out, see if any amount
Begging the sun to wake me up
And the miles ought to add up a lot
But I don't seem to care a bit

If I follow it, follow it in too far
(In a way, it's a shame, but...)
If I follow it, follow it in too far

But there's another chapter waiting there
Hesitate.
But there's another chapter waiting there
Listen in.
Try to feel it out, fooling myself,
But another chapter waiting there
Still a little further on

I want you to know I can see
That when your chemical highs have you feeling alive,
Well, you're dead, already dead.

Another chapter waiting
Another chapter waiting

Try to feel it out, fooling myself,
But another chapter waiting there
Still a little further on

Gonna make you feel alive; you're ready.
Still a little further on
Gonna make you feel alive; you're ready.
Still a little further on

Another chapter waiting
Another chapter waiting
Still a little further on
