I found out what I wanted, I found out when I needed to You thought me kind-a-hearted, I heard that when I wanted you

Being wrong isn't easy, right's another way
Being wrong isn't easy, right's another way

A-when you want me, just think like you're ready to Like me when I want to, why me does it have to be?
Everyone tried to tell me, right's another way
Everyone tried to tell me, right's another way

Trust me to fall apart, trust you to know
Just you and no-one else, just me alone
Why did it have to be? I should have known
Oh I should have known

I can't tell, did you mean it? Did you mean what I think you did?

I won't give less you need it, just a bit could be overhead

I won't wait for a minute, can't hesitate
I won't wait for a minute, can't hesitate

Trust me to fall apart, trust you to know
Just you and no-one else, just me alone
Why did it have to be? I should have known
Oh I should have known
