Turn out the lights
I'm blinded by this insanity
The sun doesn't shine
I cannot see through this life
I cannot move on I don't want to stay here all alone
Darkness inside me please be gone

You left me I'm drowning
You left me I don't know which way to go
You left me I cannot take this stain away from my chest

I cannot take this stain away
You left me with scar that I can't erase
I cannot take this stain away
I wish that these sufferings just fade

You don't see me staring at your face
Cause you're swallowed by pride and apathy
If only I could get out from your cage
All these lies and dark thoughts bring me pain

You left me I'm drowning
You left me I cannot take this stain away from my chest

I cannot take this stain away
You left me with scar that I can't erase
I cannot take this stain away
I wish that these sufferings just fade

But you turned out the lights
Now I'm blinded by this insanity
