blue jean baby
la lady
the seamstress for the band ballerina, you must have seen her dancing in the sand
hold me closer tiny dancer
count the headlights on the highway lay me down in sheets of linen you had a busy day today oh how it feels so real layin here and no one near, only you and you can hear me when I say softly, slowly, baby
and now shes been here always with me
tiny dance in my hand
