There is a weight
Within me

(And I burn)

A kiss
Heavier than the sun

(And I burn)

A slow invasion
of strange beauty

(And I burn)

Injected in the flesh
An odd nourishment
(And I burn)
For my soul

Thickening
Far away atoms
Like fat, happy Buddahs
This intimate new language
Softer than the breath
That slips from your lips

(And I burn)

In the veritas

(And I burn)

The depth of you
(And I burn)
Fills me

And I burn
And I burn
