Life is my love
Love is my right

Have you ever eaten here before?
Boy how youâ€™ve grown
Iâ€™ve got a taste for something simple
So maybe not too heavy
Letâ€™s start with a light conversation
And you can fill me in
Have you ever eaten here before?

Chorus:
Iâ€™ve been around the world my friend
Iâ€™ve seen enough and well, you know me
I can feed on what youâ€™re sharing
So long as it is free

Who said it's free?
Who said you're free?

Have you had a bite of this disparity?
Can you taste the years weâ€™ve spent falling from the tree?
Let me fill you up while we both wait to leave
Come on boy

Chorus

Who said you're free?
Who said we're free?

Is it my appetite for a slice of your American pie?
Is it my new lawful right to tell you not to ask me if
I'm fit to fight?
Is it my mad desire to love a man?
That hinders your hand

Who said you're free?
Who said we're free?
Life is my love
Love is my right
Who said you're free?

Who said there's free?
Who said I'm free?

Well I too have seen the world my friend
But I've not seen enough
And you don't know me
I can feed on what you're sharing
So long as I am free
